Volume VIII.

FRANKFORT, KY., JANUARY 24, 1885.

Number 19.

Mr. W. T. Runyan on Wednesday sold out his entire stock of dry goods to Mr. S. Klass.

The young ladies Cooking Club gave an elegant entertainment at the Capital Hotel Wednesday evening.

We now have two candidates on the track for the Legislature and a third is said to be feeling his way out.

Mr. Geo. S. Green, of the Farmdale neighborhood, is announced in this issue as a candidate for County Clerk.

Both the City and County Assessors are now at work listing property. Mr. H. J. Hyde is assisting City Assessor Discol on the South Side.

Miss Monie Tate gave a German at the Capital Hotel Thursday evening. It was a very brilliant affair, many of the guests being from Louisville.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church are preparing for an entertainment to be given very soon. Time and place will be announced.

To-morrow night at 7 o'clock Mr. Darsie gives the second of a series of discourses on first principles. His subject will be "Our Doctrinal Position Subject 1."

In response to a call, signed by two hundred and thirty-six citizens of the county, Col. S. I. M. Major has announced himself as a candidate for the Legislature.

The City Council have determined to receive bids for putting a boiler into the Opera House to heat the building by steam, Messrs. Furgerson & Meek's contract having expired.

Messrs. S. & J. H. Told have brought up the river in the last few days four 14 tons of coal, which it is likely they will dispose of at retail. The R. J. race arrived Wednesday night with the first one.

The weather changed suddenly Friday night from wet to cold, and the snap has hold on pretty well ever since. The mercury Thursday morning stood at five degrees below zero.

A Card from Dr. Hatchitt.
Editor Roundabout:

One of the littlet things to do, known in a civilized community, is for a paper to make a fling at a man and then refuse to publish a reply in explanation. Such a paper is the Capital, which has already earned in this community the sobriquet, "chronic kicker."

On the 12th inst. this paper dilated editorially at some length about the "gross negligence or carelessness" of the Frankfort post-office, in failing to deliver a letter for two cents due from the 2d to the 5th inst., when nothing was due on the letter. An explanation was sent to the Capital, which it declined to publish. Besides, the whole thing was explained to the editor when he received the letter, and he knew when he wrote his editorial that this office was not responsible for any wrong.

The facts are: A letter for the Capital was received at this office on the 2d inst., marked due two cents. It was placed, as a matter of course, with letters held for postage, and a notice put in the Capital's box that it was so held. The letter was not delivered, and on the 3d inst. another notice was given. Not being called for, another notice was given on the 5th inst., the 4th being Sunday, and the letter was called for and delivered. Afterward when the editor came with what he said was the entire letter, complaining that it did not weigh over half an ounce, he was told that it was not rated at this office, and his controversy must be with the mailing office.

We had no option in the case, being compelled by law to collect the two cents.

We submit that these facts not only exculpate this office of any wrong, but show that the editor was guilty of "gross negligence or carelessness" or a want of capacity in attending to his own business, otherwise he would have had his letter on the 2nd inst., when first notified.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

Wm Penn, in 1775: "The rum ruins us. We desire it may be forbidden and never sold in the Indian country."

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union meets every Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the Chapel of the Christian Church. As there will be business of importance before the Union next Wednesday, it is earnestly desired that every member will be present.

Cincinnati has six miles of rum-holes, New York has seventeen and London seventy-five, a hundred miles in three cities. And what a road to travel! Flooded with scalding tears, lined with broken hearts, envied by desolate homes, alma-houses, prisons and asylums, and paved with the bones of murdered victims; millions persist in driving at a break-neck pace over this sin-macadamized way to hell.

Many English physicians are trying to dispense with the use of alcohol in medicine. In St. George's Infirmary, London, where beer was discontinued in the treatment of transient cases, they were ready for discharge sooner than before. Thirty old women had been bed-ridden from one to seven years, being daily supplied with brandy or beer. When this was discontinued they all improved so as to be able to leave their beds, and some went to work. Many more cases might be given, showing that the use of beer as a medicine is a delusion and a snare.

"What is alcohol, or especially, is it a food, or poison, or medicine, or a luxury? Under the term, alcohol, I include all intoxicating drinks, be cause it is on account of the alcohol, chiefly, if not wholly, that such drinks are used. Alcohol is nowhere to be found in any product of nature—was never itself created by God—but is essentially an artificial thing, produced by man through the destructive process of fermentation. Perfect health can only be obtained by total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks; because alcohol damages the natural functions of the body, and produces a morbid condition of the tissues with which it comes in contact. Henry Monroe, M. D., F. L. S., lecturer on medical jurisprudence and histology at East Riding School of medicine.

There was standing room only at Havlin's Theatre last evening, and but little of that, so packed was the house. Morris and Bock's melodrama, the "Power of money," was the attraction and the performance was so pleasing to the audience that the applause was at times tumultuous and the expressions of laughter so hearty that it was itself a feature of the evening. While the "Power of Money" has been presented here before, it is this time so improved and rewritten that it is like a new play. The scenery is so realistic, and, at times, so grand that the curtain last evening had to go up several times in response to the manifestations of the delighted audience. Frederick Bock plays a double character, that of "Stuart Forsythe" and "John Forsythe," twin-brothers. He exhibits power and force, and has a fine physique that adds much to his character. Miss Lena Kindt, as a "Master Willie Wordsley," the son of the murdered General, makes a bright boy, mischievous and brave. Miss Lena is at home on the stage and won the audience from the first. Frank Davis as "Peter Lucius Jolland, kept the people in a roar or a shout every time he appeared. His songs and comical sayings were well received, especially taking. Frank P. Jamison, as "Joel Carruthers," the villain of the piece, carried his part in a manner to set the gods wild. J. K. Vernon, as "Stagboot," the tramp, was excessively trashy, and all of the minor parts assumed by male members of the company were well handled. Miss Fannie Davis did excellent as "Artemesia Clinton Jolland." The "Aunt Dorothy" of Miss Emma Leland was well handled, and Miss Jennie Jackson, as "Jeanne Wordsley, the General's daughter, was extremely clever.—Cincinnati Enquirer, Nov. 3, 1884

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Jos. LeCompte.

A Deceived Woman

Is the lady who uses cosmetics, face lotions, white lead, Bismuth, powders, arsenic, &c., in the belief of enriching and beautifying the complexion. It is but temporary and ultimately destroys the skin beyond the power of nature to restore. Stop it! Stop it now and use only Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, which imparts the vigor and loveliness of youth.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JANUARY 24, 1885.

The wood cutters at work on the drift pile should be very careful to extinguish their fires at night, which they build during the day to keep themselves warm, as a spark from one of them might cause the loss of the St. Clair street bridge.

Mr. Wm. Tracy was going up the road leading up on Taylor's Hill Tuesday night, walking behind his wagon, when he slipped upon some ice in the road and fell over the side of the hill, which was very steep at that point, and rolled about fifty feet, until he struck a small rock, which was sticking out of the ground, and was only able to get back on the road by crawling. Had he gone a few feet farther he would have fallen over a steep bank on the roof of Bob Johnson's blacksmith shop. Fortunately he was not much hurt.

Wm. Kaise, a brakeman on freight train No. 20, which arrived in this city at 9:25 Wednesday night from Lexington, was knocked off a car by the bridge over the railroad at the crossing of the Versailles pike at Jones' Station, and killed. He was engaged in "setting up" the brakes when the train passed under the bridge, and was struck on the head, the top of his skull being split off. He was not missed until the train reached the mouth of the tunnel, when it was backed up the grade to look for him, and his lifeless body was found by the side of the track. He was a man of about 50 years of age and had been on the road as a brakeman nearly thirty years. He was a widower and leaves two children who reside in Lexington.

We were present Wednesday afternoon, on the farm of Mr. A. W. Cromwell near this city, at the demonstration of how easy it is for a farmer to get rid of stumps in his fields by the use of dynamite, and we must say that it does its work well. Mr. S. D. Middleton, agent of the Aetna Powder Company, conducted the experiments, and showed how, by a few minutes labor and very little expense, the largest stumps could be taken up by the roots and gotten rid of entirely. Charges were placed under some half dozen stumps and in every instance the great explosive worked like a charm. A number of gentlemen were present, from the city and the neighborhood, who were very much pleased with the exhibition, and every farmer who has a field obstructed with stumps should certainly have been there.

This giant powder costs about half what the ordinary blasting powder does, and one pound of it is equal to about two pounds of the latter. With sixty cents' worth of it and ten or fifteen minutes labor stumps can be taken up that would require days of labor the old way. Messrs. Ferguson & Meek are the agents for the sale of it in this city and county.

We have the reply of In Quod Erat Demonstrandum to Councilman Ferguson but it is unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

A protracted meeting has been in progress at the A. M. E. Church in this city for the past three weeks. So far there has been five additions to the Church.

The firm of S. Klass & Co., in the dry goods and ready-made clothing business on St. Clair street, was dissolved on Friday, Mr. H. Ringold retiring.

Mr. S. Klass has purchased the stock of Mr. R. Glogower and removed it to his store in the Odd Fellow's building. Mr. Glogower will clerk for Mr. Klass.

Rev. Gilby C. Kelly will take for his subject to-morrow evening: The Clean Way, the first of a series of sermons addressed especially to young men. Services begin at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Jake S. Evans, of this city, and Miss Bessie Clark, of Todd county, were married at Guthrie on Thursday and arrived in this city last evening. They have taken rooms at the residence of the groom's mother, on Lewi street.

There was a lively row at Mr. John T. Waters' saloon on Monday, in which the proprietor was rather badly used up. Some six or seven parties were involved and a number of warrants were sworn out charging them with various offenses.

Drs. Gratigny and Norris, of Cincinnati, Ohio, specialists in treatment of cancers, tumors, nasal catarrh, &c., will be at the Capital Hotel from Wednesday afternoon, 3 o'clock, until Thursday eve, Jan. 28 & 29, for reception and treatment of patients.

On Saturday evening a colored woman by the name of Matilda Langford stole a lot of dry goods from Mr. James Heeney. The matter being reported to Chief of Police Hudson, the matter was placed in the hands of Officers Noonan and Williams, who on Monday secured a part of the goods and arrested the thief.

On Monday morning some little colored children went into the grocery of Mr. S. N. Davidson, on Mero street, and stole about two dollars' worth of cigars. Officer Brown was notified and arrested them, but upon their mother agreeing to pay for the stolen goods they were released.

A colored man by the name of John Ellis, who claims to be from Lexington, was employed Wednesday to clean up some rooms over Compton's flour store on Broadway, and took occasion, while thus engaged, to go through the pockets of a pair of pants left hanging on a bed-post by Mr. D. C. McDonald, and appropriated about four dollars in change which he found there. When the money was missed Officer Brown was informed, who arrested Ellis and found a portion of the money concealed in one of his shoes. He was given fifty-one days in the work-house.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, in this city, on Thursday, January 22, 1885, by Rev. George Davis, Mr. George W. Miller and Miss Mary Helen Long.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, in this city, on the 6th of January, 1885, Miss Fannie Powell, aged thirty years.

"Fanny is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised." In early childhood Miss Powell was a member of the Presbyterian Sunday-School, and for more than twenty years she has been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. All along the line, she has been faithful, doing her duty cheerfully and well. Faithful unto death, she has gone to receive her reward. Her life was one of noble self-sacrifice and devotion to duty. Never did death claim a more truly heroic spirit than when he claimed the spirit of Sally Powell. Those are not bravest who fight well on the field of honor. They are most truly heroic who, with cheerful faces, their course of duty run; who in obscurity calmly fight the hard battles of life. As long as she had strength, she continued at her duties. Long after almost any other would have surrendered, she remained at her post. Not until the day before her death did she lay aside her work. She has accepted the sweet invitation, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest"; and her tired hands and weary eyes rest for the broken and drooping spirit, rest from toil and sorrow and pain, that rest that cannot be taken by the people of God. She died with all the triumphs of the Christian's faith and the Christian's hope of a glorious resurrection. The sweet consistency of her pure life and her course, and kept the faith, she has gone to receive the crown which the Lord, the righteous Judge, has in store for her.

"Beautiful twilight at set of sun,
Beautiful soul with race well run,
Beautiful rest with work well done."

"Beautiful grave where grasses creep,
When heaven's angels where the spirit deep,
Over your out hands Oh beautiful sleep."

Died, at his residence near Frankfort, on Tuesday, January 20, 1885, of Pneumonia, Moses Carter, colored.

In the death of Moses the community lost a useful and valuable citizen, one whose virtues were many and faults so few that no one ever found them out. He left a wife and six children to mourn his loss and emulate his example of industry and integrity.

SELL STRICTLY FOR CASH.

The credit plan has been so abused in the past few years that it is no longer to the interest of either the buyer or seller to continue it. Besides its being a constant annoyance to the merchant, it is a very expensive luxury to the cash and prompt paying credit customers, as they have not only to pay a fair profit on all the goods they buy, but an additional profit to make up for money lost on those customers who don't pay at all, and to pay for book-keepers, collectors, and all other expenses of the credit system. In making this change I am sure that it is in the interest of my customers, if not to myself, as I will save them on all future purchases at least 5 to 25 per cent.

Thanking my old friends for their kind support in the past, and hoping to receive their patronage in the future by serving them faithfully, I am

Respectfully,

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, JANUARY 24, 1885.

Anyone wishing plain sewing can have it done by calling at 827 Campbell street, South Side.

The work on the pumping station for the new Water Works is being pushed along rapidly. The contractors are at work making an excavation seventy feet in depth into the face of the hill for the necessary buildings.

Drs. Grattigny & Norris, the physicians from Cincinnati who cured the cancer upon Mr. A. G. Brawner's face, will be at the Capital Hotel next Wednesday and Thursday, and a 1 who are troubled with anything like cancer should be certain to go to see them.

The Yeoman having knocked the chip off the Capital's shoulder our two neighbors are now selling into each other on the question of the correct weight of a bushel of coal. When either of you get enough, boys, just "holter" and we'll step in and pull the top man off.

Persons living out on the Lawroneburg pike, who have to travel after dark, complain that the contractors at work on the pump house of the Water Company do not place a light near their work, and it is dangerous for persons passing in a vehicle or on horseback, as the pike is rather narrow at that point.

After Suffering Eleven Years.
Dawson, Ga., August 30, 1884.—I suffered with tetter for eleven years. I suffered on my face and body, and gave me untold trouble and pain. I tried the virtue of many remedies, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but found no relief, and had almost despaired of my life. I was induced to try Swift's Specific as a last resort. After taking six bottles the tetter was removed and my skin smoothed off, and I am perfectly well. I feel like a new man. Swift's Specific is undoubtedly the best blood purifier in the world, and I recommend it to suffering humanity everywhere.

A Child.

My little son, now seven years old, broke out when a babe three weeks old with what the doctors called eczema, beginning on the head and gradually spreading over his body. He was treated five years or more by various physicians without relief, and the little boy's health was completely broken down. About a year ago I was induced to use on him Swift's Specific, and two bottles cured him sound and well, and there has been no sign of the return of the disease.
